

The Bernard Becker Medical Library,
in collaboration with
The Center for the History of Medicine, presents the

19th Historia Medica Lecture

Transforming Medical Education: Pritchett, Flexner and Brookings

5:15 pm, Monday, November 1, 2010
In the King Center on the 7th floor of Becker Library

Candace O'Connor, author of Beginning a Great Work: Washington University, 1853-2003

Light refreshments will be available in the King Center at 4:30.
A wine reception will follow the lecture.