“McGill Medicine: 1829-1996”

St. Louis Neurologist

Joseph K. Hanaway, M.D.

Dr. Hanaway’s interest in medical history began with the Osler Society at McGill, from which he earned his MDCM in 1960. Later at the University of Virginia, he cofounded a medical history group. He supported Estelle Brodman’s medical history group at Washington University in the early 1970’s. As Chairman of the library committee of the SLMMS in the 1980’s he helped move the Ball and Paracelsus Collections to Archives and Rare Books. He has published extensively on the history of Medicine.
